Jaguar Mining to Transfer Stock Listing to NYSE

Jaguar Mining Inc. (“Jaguar” or the “Company”) (JAG: TSX/NYSE Arca, JAG.NT: TSX) announced it will transfer the trading of its common shares from the NYSE Arca exchange to the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”). The Company has received approval from the NYSE and anticipates it will begin trading on the NYSE on July 6, 2009 under the current symbol “JAG”. In light of this approval, the Company will seek to delist its common shares from the NYSE Arca Exchange. The Company will continue to be listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

About Jaguar

Jaguar is one of the fastest growing gold producers in Brazil with operations in a prolific greenstone belt in the state of Minas Gerais. Jaguar is actively exploring and developing additional mineral resources at its 65,500 acre land base in Minas Gerais and on an additional 186,600 acres in the state of Ceará in the Northeast of Brazil through a joint venture. The Company has no gold hedges in place thereby providing the leverage to gold prices directly to its investors. Additional information is available on the Company's website at www.jaguarmining.com.
